TAFF NEWS #2

The monthly* newsletter of the Trans-Atlantic Fan Fund

WE HAVE A RACE!

Indeed there is. The Westbound TAFF race for 2018, has three top-flight, top-tier, top-of-the-line, top-of-the-charts candidates vying for your votes. Each has submitted their bond money and platform statement, and have been nominated by five of their fine fellow fen to travel from Europe to the wild, wild west of San Jose, California, for the 76th World Science Fiction Convention on August 16–20, 2018. Here are the candidates:

- ⇒ Johan Anglemark
- ⇒ Fia Karlsson
- ⇒ Helena McCallum (a.k.a., Adela Terrell)

Included in this month's TAFF News is the official ballot for the 2018 TAFF race. Besides providing all of the rules regarding voting, you can read each of the candidates' platform statements and see their list of nominators. The voting period is now officially open and will close at midnight of Tuesday, April 3, 2018, to coincide with the end of Eastercon 2018. Eligible fans

(see the rules on the first page of the official ballot) may vote either by downloading the form from this issue of TAFF News or from the TAFF website at <http://taff.org.uk/> then mail in the entire ballot to the TAFF administrator on your side of the Atlantic Ocean along with the applicable minimum voting fee (£3.00 (GBP) or $4.00 (USD)), although larger donations are gratefully accepted. If you prefer to vote online, go to this link <http://taff.org.uk/vote.php> and follow the directions. It is a very quick and easy to navigate process. The addresses and PayPal email addresses are provided below.

On behalf of Anna and myself, we wish Johan, Fia, and Helena a fun and profitable campaign. Let the games begin!

TAFF Sales!

Hey, gang! I have on hand five copies of Jacqueline Monahan's magnificent 2012 TAFF Trip report, Same Planet, Different World: Jacq's TAFF Adventure in the UK (2017). You can order a copy of one of these from me for the modest donation of $12.50, of which $10 goes towards the Fan Fund, and $2.50 goes toward postage to mail it directly to you. Simply contact me at askance73@gmail.com or at the TAFF direct email address of 2017taff2019@gmail.com, and provide your name and street address with your order.

This report, pictured here, is a remarkable publication. Ably assisted by Nic Farey and John Wesley Hardin, Jacq has filled her report with a treasure trove of pictures to illustrate the tales of her travels to the 2012 Eastercon held at Heathrow, London. Along the way she visited Cambridge, Stonehenge, and many delightful British science fiction fans. Plus there is a Foodie Section complete with recipes! This is a collectible worth owning. Order your copy today!

To learn more about the Trans-Atlantic Fan Fund, go to the unofficial yet thorough website at <https://taff.org.uk> and peruse its wealth of information about past TAFF races, its winners, voting results, free eBooks, and all aspects of this long-running (64 years now) fan fund. There are also links to its sister funds DUFF and GUFF.

This site is maintained by that nice Mr. Langford fellow.

2018 TAFF Ballot - Europe to North America

Please read both sides before voting and send the entire sheet as your vote.

The Trans-Atlantic Fan Fund was created in 1953 for the purpose of providing funds to bring well-known and active fans familiar to those on both sides of the ocean across the Atlantic. Since that time, TAFF has regularly brought North American fans to European conventions and European fans to North American conventions. It exists solely through the support of fandom. That support, and the continued generosity of fandom, are what make TAFF possible.

Who may vote?

Voting in the 2018 race is open to anyone active in fandom before April 2016 who donates at least £3.00 (GBP) or $4.00 (USD) to TAFF (larger donations are very gratefully accepted). Voting is by secret ballot: one vote per person, and you must provide your name on the ballot. You may change your vote at any time prior to the deadline. All votes must reach the administrators by midnight (Eastern US time) on Tuesday, April 3, 2018.

Donations:

TAFF gratefully accepts your freely given money, material for auction and other relevant donations; such generosity has sustained the Fund for more than 60 years. TAFF is fandom's longest-running travel fund - give early and often! Please contact your nearest administrator for details.

Candidates:

Each candidate has posted a bond of $20 promising to travel, if elected, to the 2018 Worldcon in San Jose, California. Each candidate has three nominators on their side of the Atlantic and two on the other, each of whom has personally contacted the administrators with their nomination. Each candidate has also provided a platform of up to 101 words (published overleaf). Anyone active in SF fandom can run for TAFF as long as they fulfil these criteria for the relevant race; contact your administrator about future races!

Voting System:

TAFF uses a preference voting system similar to the system used in voting for the Hugo Awards. Voters should rank candidates in order of preference. This allows for the lowest-ranked candidates to be eliminated from the race and those votes redistributed according to the next ranking until one candidate has a clear majority. A candidate must receive at least 20% of the #1 rank votes on both sides of the Atlantic to win. Any candidate failing to receive this minimum percentage on either side will be dropped, and the second-place votes on their ballots counted as first-place votes in the next ballot count. Votes will be counted according to a voter's contact address, not where they send their ballot. Votes from fans not resident in either Europe or North America will not count towards either side of the Atlantic for the purpose of this rule.

"Hold Over Funds":

This choice, like "No Award" in Hugo balloting, gives you the chance to vote for no TAFF trip this year, should you feel none of the candidates deserve your support. "Hold Over Funds" is exempt from the 20% requirement: if it receives a majority of the votes on the final ballot, no trip will be held this year.

"No Preference":

For voters who prefer not to choose between candidates, but don't want the trip held over.

How to Vote:

Either send a copy of this form with a check, or pay via PayPal. The minimum donation to vote is $4 (USD) or £3 (GBP) or 3 Euros. In the US Checks should be made payable to "John Purcell" (for checks in USD) or to "TAFF" (for cheques in GBP or Euros). PayPal donations should be made to the email addresses below with your contact details and your ranked voting preferences in the comments section. If you do not fill in the comments section, your vote may not be counted! Send your signed and completed ballot form and donation to:

Europe: Anna Raftery - cheques payable to "TAFF" 13 Chatham House, 10 Melbourne Road, Wallington, SM6 8SB UK. Paypal using email: EUTAFF(at)gmail.com

North America: John Purcell - Checks payable to "John Purcell" 3744 Marielene Circle, College Station, TX 77845 USA.

The 2018 TAFF Candidates

Johan Anglemark

I met fandom in 1983. Soon I was involved in con-running and I've never stopped; I'm on two concons currently. I've attended all European Worldcons since 1990, but never one in America; I would love to do that through TAFF, and write a trip report. I'm co-administrator of the Swedish branch of the Nordic Fan Fund and the chair of the Alvar Appeltofft Memorial Foundation, a Finnish charity. When not on staff, I flog used books at cons. I live with Linnéa in a house full of cats, games, vinyl records, and books, and earn my living as a tech writer.

Nominated by: (Europe) Caroline Mullan, Ron Gemmell, Eemeli Aro. (NA) Ulrika O'Brien, Diane Lacey

Fia Karlsson

You can't spell FIAWOL without Fia! This wildling born north of the Arctic Circle came south bringing her friendly manners and passion for organizing with her. She lures you in with dill chips, but you stay for her genuineness.

She went from book-blogging to hosting a book circle, which grew into the fandom society in Malmö, Sweden. Fia has chaired two cons, worked as the Social Media Area Head for Worldcon 75, been adopted into the Finnish fandom, and was the 2017 Nordic Fan Fund delegate at Octocon in Dublin. She's now ready to Take on San Jose! Fia for TAFF!

Nominated by: (Europe) Jukka Halme, John-Henri Holmberg, Gareth Kavanagh. (NA) Lucy Huntzinger, Michael Lee.

Helena McCallum (Adela Terrell)

My name is Helena McCallum, originally from Scotland. In 2002 my partner left me at home to attend the San Jose Worldcon with his friend. Now, 16 years and 2 children later, I seek your assistance for revenge. It will also be just before my 40th birthday, which may come as a surprise to some who remember my first forays into fandom in the mid- 90s.

I was told people like me don't get to run for TAFF, so here I am. I'm friendly, out-going, and a fun person to have at a party, I'll bring a nice Whisky.

Nominated by: (Europe) Douglas Spencer, James Shields, David O'Neill. (NA) Pablo Vasquez, Tracy Benton.

Please rank candidates with 1, 2, etc. where 1 is your first preference:

☐ Johan Anglemark ☐ Fia Karlsson ☐ Helena McCallum ☐ Hold Over Funds ☐ No Preference
