Hear ye, hear ye! You better run, you better hide!
Johan Anglemark is coming! He has set up his travel plans, lining up places to see and people to stay with. All in all, I envy Johan as he is about to embark on a life-changing event.

As it turns out, he can't wait to attend Worldcon 76 so he is attending two other conventions to prepare himself: Finncon in Turku, Finland (July 14-15), and then ArmadilloCon 40 in Austin, Texas (August 3-5). Eventually he will wend his way out to San Jose, California for Worldcon 76.

So here are the salient points of his journey and web sites to provide a whole bunch of information:

By all means, feel free to walk up and say hello to Johan if you have the chance at some point during his travels. Make him feel welcome. Buy him a beer. Buy stuff at the Fan Fund Auction at Worldcon 76. I will also be selling items at ArmadilloCon 40 to benefit TAFF, so if you are there, I look forward to seeing folks there.
